Pfc George W. Brown has been notified he is now the proud possessor of a brand new, hardly unwrapped parcel in pink. Young Miss Brown boasts a slim figure, scaling 9 pounds, hopes Daddy Brown has the traditional cigars to pass out to potential suitors and friends. 20 extra bucks per month, too.

Tea 4 Ogden Kelly, from the wide open spaces, and at the present the idle gang, absolutely advocates the use of our dovntoT. "IIIRecHall" beer. Kelly has experienced many a "glow" since it's arrival, and assures us all by commenting, "Man, that stuff'll edge ya. if you stay with it."

Sgt McCormick, K.P. pusher, pursues his JOQ in earnest..and can usually be found on the tail of some wandering cuisinier or madamoiselle. Mac has a new gleam in his eyes, since the arrival of our new gals, and I'm positive he doesn't take them out and polish them each night to galH that glisten.

"Tiny' Abernathy has the loveliest conversations at dinner with his ever so nice partnc'l'!":>adack^{ll}. All we've been able to quote Tini up to date is llpurely platonic, fellers, pure ly p~a^tonkC."

ED NOTE: Apologies and correction to Pfc O'Brien. This is the second set of plates gone Sor the common cause.

You Figure It Out!

The Officer in charge of Intelli~ence for the U.S. Army, and the Officer tlnhU" charge of Gounter-Intelligence for e ~. Army turn out to be the same man.

HULVIA PHILOSOFHY

Did it ever occur to you that 2 man's lifo is full of crosses and temptations. He comes into this world without his consent and goes out against his Will, and the trip in between is exceedingly rocky. The rul~ of contraries is one of the feat- wses of the trip.

When he is little, the big girls Y... him; when he is big, th~ little girls ki00 him.

If he is poor, he is a bad manager; if he is rich, he is dishonest.

If he needs credit, he can't get it; if he is prosperous, everyone want to do him a favor.

If he is in politics, it's for graft; if he isn't, he's no good to his country.

If he doesn't give to charity, he's stingy; if he does, it's for show.

If he is actively religious, he is a hypocrit~, if he d}akes no interest he is a hardened Slnner.

If he Gies young, there was a great future before him; if he lives to an old age, he has missed his calling.

Life consists of one damn thing after arrotner, if70u saye money, you are a miser; if you spend it, you are a loafer.

If you get it, you are a grafter; if you don't, you're a bum.

COMISANY "C"

In What will ~prObably be the best pitched game this season, Co n~" took Co "ClIthis week by a score of 1 to 0. The game went seven innings and saw "Swede" Oleonn mow down the opposition without a hit or without a man reachlilg first base. Our boys played good ball, but just couldn't fathom the "Sweede's" fast one.

Go "A" got only four hits but they were enough to account for one run, and that proved sufficient.

Our scheC':ulefor next week isn't quite rounded out as yet, but we have one gama on the card Ifith the officers for Friday night.

On Wed night, behind the 5 hit pttching of Freshour, Co "G" defeated the 755th Shop Bn by the score of 7 to 1.

Here is a story concerning a prominent attorney who met a chEnt of his in front of a hotel.. She was an elderly lady, handsomely gowned, who had with her a tiny French poodle. As the two talked over a business matter, the poodle suddenly became attracted to the attorney's shoes. Quickly the attorney stepped aside. The woman smiled and said, "Don't be alarmed, he won't bite. II"lm not 3.fraid of his bit ing me", the attorney replied, II but I saw him raise he leg and thought held kick me. II
